

weekend

DRI T IN

HUNTER S. THOMPSON M + B Gallery
Hunter S. Thompson's "Self Portrait,
On the Road to Tijuana," from the '60s.

This gonzo life, documented

Before his death, counterculture hero and journalist Hunter S. Thompson worked on "Gonzo," an extensive book that chronicled his life through photographs and memorabilia. Photos on display at M+B offer a visual history of his personal life and gonzo assignments, including his adventures as a foreign correspondent in Puerto Rico and road trips with Hells Angels.

— CYNTHIA DEA

M+B
612 N. Almond Drive, L.A.
Hours: 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. Tuesdays through Saturdays. Ends Jan. 20.
(310) 550-0050

is grand ble, art
a potent
ross L.A.

26

A SLEIGH FULL OF GAMES | MATTHEW FOX: FOUND